

Downstairs at Grays: A Georgian Diamond Pendant set in High Carat Yellow Gold & Silver, English, Circa 1780 - 1790 £14,850.00

A Georgian Double Crescent, Star & Pear-Shaped Girondolle Style Diamond Pendant set in 15 Carat Yellow Gold & Silver. Open-back set throughout with forty (40), Old European Cut & Old Mine Cut Diamonds and one (1), Pear Shaped Diamond. Some of the principal stones in granulated edged collet settings. The Diamonds have been independently assessed in their mounts as weighing approximately 4.20 Carats, of G - H - I Colour and VS2 - SI1 Clarity. Suspended from a later detachable 42 cm. Platinum (tested) chain. Please note these assessments have been made within the limits of the mounting.

Accompanied by an independent Gemmologist's report outlining the above assessment.

For comparative design, please see the portrait of Queen Charlotte by Thomas Frye, currently owned by The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Pendant English

Circa 1780 (later Chain).

Origin	British
Period	18th Century
Style	Georgian
Condition	Very good

Materials Sterling Silver

Main Gemstone Diamond

Main Gemstone Clarity VS - SI

Main Gemstone Carat 4.2

Main Diamond Colour G-H

Dimensions 3.8 x 4 cm

Main Gemstone Cut Pear Cut

Secondary Gemstone Diamond

Secondary Gemstone Cut Old European Cut

Secondary Gemstone Clarity VS - SI

Secondary Diamond Colour H-I

Antique ref: 4187