

Garnet, Citrine, Topaz, Peridot, Amethyst and Diamond Bracelet in 925 Sterling Silver date circa 1960, Lilly's Attic since £375.00

Q: What was jewellery like in the 60s?

A: 1960s jewellery trends include Mod or pop art colours: black and white, yellow and green, and pink and red to name just a few. Big dangling earrings in geometric shapes, stacks of thick or skinny bangles, colourful flower bracelets and necklaces, and plastic character pins were all new for the space age youth.
