

Christian Dior Chain in Gold Tone Metal date circa 1980, Lilly's Attic since 2001 £278.00

Q: How did Christian Dior start?

A: After closing his gallery during the Great Depression, he worked under fashion designer Robert Piguet and then-couturier Lucien Long. Dior was ready for his own work to be showcased, though, which is what brought him to create his own fashion house in 1946, and Christian Dior was born.
