

French Art Deco Diamond and Platinum Double Clip Brooch, Circa 1930
£40,000.00

A French Art Deco diamond and platinum double clip brooch, set with round brilliant-cut, Edwardian-cut, eight-cut and baguette-cut diamonds, in an abstract design, mounted in platinum, with Frenchdog head marks. The clip fittings are made of white gold, with eagle head marks, for 18ct gold, with a French maker's mark, initialled Ste and G, with a fly or moth between. The largest diamond weighs approximately 1.30 carats and the remaining diamonds weigh approximately 23.50 carats.

Origin	French
Period	1930s
Style	Art Deco
Condition	Very good
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Brilliant Cut
Main Gemstone Carat	24.80ct
Hallmark	French marks for 18ct gold
Dimensions	Height 76.3mm, width 73.4mm

Antique ref: XHD15622B2