

Cabochon Sapphire Ring in Fluted 18ct Gold | London Hallmarked POA

There's something really honest and appealing about this ring.

Made in London in the 1990s and hallmarked with the crown, leopard's head, and 750 for 18ct gold, it's a beautifully crafted little piece of jewellery and a quietly brilliant piece.

The fluted gold band gives it a tactile, organic feel, like it's been shaped by nature or movement, not just by tools.

At the centre is a cabochon sapphire, smooth, deep blue, and quietly luminous that glows in its own calm way, giving the whole ring a more intimate energy.

The maker's mark JC is stamped inside the band, and the ring is a UK size L.

It feels like the kind of piece someone would wear everyday and quietly becomes a part of them.

Made in London in the 1990s, it carries a sense of thoughtfulness and ease.

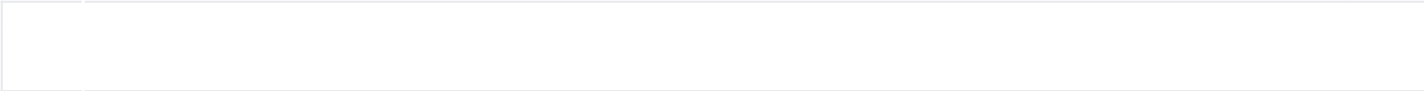

A perfect ring to wear every day, not because it's showy, but because it quietly becomes part of you.

Easy to wear and easy to love.
