

Art Nouveau Silver Bat Buckle with Chrysoprase | c.1920 POA

A rare and imaginative Art Nouveau belt buckle from the 1920s, crafted in sterling silver and set with vibrant green chrysoprase cabochons.

At the centre of this flowing, organic design is a stylised bat - sculptural, symmetrical, and striking - flanked by curling, almost botanical flourishes that echo the spirit of Jugendstil.

Measuring 10cm wide by 5cm high, it's an unusual and charismatic piece that bridges the decorative and the daring.

Whether worn or collected, it's a powerful expression of early 20th-century design at its most playful and bold.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
