

ANTIQUE 19thC RUSSIAN EIGHT-PIECE SOLID SILVER & GLASS VODKA SET c.1880

£8,995.00

Antique 19th Century Imperial Russian eight-piece solid silver & cut glass vodka set, comprising: a circular tray engraved with Lillis of the valley and place circles, the baluster shaped bottle etched with flowers and leaves, collar and stopper mounted with silver pierced with geometric motifs, six vodka charki with shaped pan Slavic style handles, cups engraved with lillys of the valley and initials, set presented in a fitted wood box, the lid with a brass plaque engraved with same initials, with key. Tray Hallmarked Russian silver 84 (875 standard), Moscow, Makers AE (Alexandr Egomov, 1868-1897), Asseyed by Victor Savinsky 1887, bottle and stopped hallmarked 84, Mascow, KA (Karl Antriter), cups hallmarked 84, Moscow 1885, AF (Alexandr Fulf, 1862-1917) Retailed by Nemirov-Kolodkin.

The Jeweller Nikolai Nemirov-Kolodkin (1872–91), owner of five shops on Silver Row in Moscow and four shops at the Nizhny Novgorod Fair. Commissioned to make silverware for the Moscow Palace Office in 1876 and the imperial palaces in Moscow in 1877 and was awarded the title of purveyor to the court of Grand Duchess Elizabeth Fyodorovna.

DECANTER
Height: 28cm
Width: 11cm
Weight: 595g

TRAY
Height: 1cm
Width: 24.5cm
Weight: 370cm

CUP
Height: 5cm
Width: 6 x 4cm
Weight: 33cm

BOX
Height: 16cm
Width: 30 x 29cm

Material and Technique	silver, cut glass
-------------------------------	-------------------

Origin	Russian
---------------	---------

Period	19th Century
---------------	--------------

Condition	Good
------------------	------

Hallmark	Tray Hallmarked Russian silver 84 (875 standard), Moscow, Makers AE (Alexandr Egomov, 1868-1897), Asseyed by Victor Savinsky 1887, bottle and stopped hallmarked 84, Mascow, KA (Karl Antriter), cups hallmarked 84, Moscow 1885, AF (Alexandr Fulf, 1862-1917) Retailed by Nemirov-Kolodkin.
-----------------	---

Antique ref: A5307